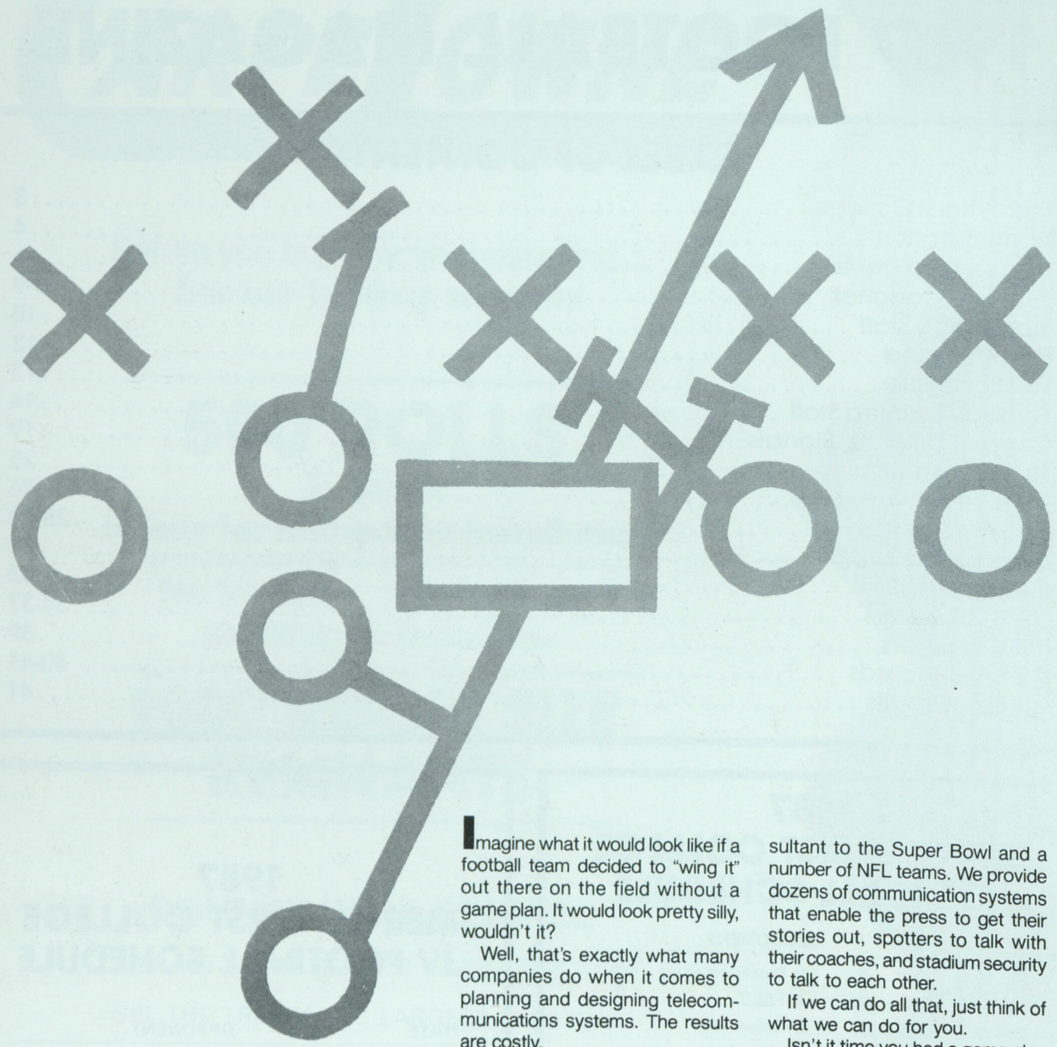
Maybe it's time you had one for your telecommunications system.



Imagine what it would look like if a football team decided to "wing it" out there on the field without a game plan. It would look pretty silly, wouldn't it?

Well, that's exactly what many companies do when it comes to planning and designing telecommunications systems. The results are costly.

That's where we come in to play. You see, we can show you the most cost effective way to handle your information. No matter how unusual your needs are. In fact, we're the telecommunications consultant to the Super Bowl and a number of NFL teams. We provide dozens of communication systems that enable the press to get their stories out, spotters to talk with their coaches, and stadium security to talk to each other.

If we can do all that, just think of what we can do for you.

Isn't it time you had a game plan for your telecommunications system? Get in touch with us. Your GTE Account Manager will be glad to help you draw one up.

COACH TONY DEMEO

Tony DeMeo is entering his seventh season at the helm of the Mercyhurst College football program. The 38-year-old New York City native was appointed to direct the inaugural Laker gridiron edition on March 11, 1981, and has proceeded to place the Hurst among the Division III elite. Mercyhurst has been ranked as high as 15th in the NCAA Division III poll, 11th in the Football News Division III rankings, and in last year's preseason edition, 6th by Sports Illustrated.

In six seasons at Mercyhurst, DeMeo has accumulated a 35-17-2 record while facing a more demanding schedule each season. Overall, he has a career slate of 57-27-4 in ten years as a head coach. DeMeo's 50th victory is likely his most satisfying, as the Lakers won at perennial Division III power, Dayton, 19-6, in 1985.

DeMeo immediately instilled a winning attitude in the Mercyhurst program, leading the 1981 squad to a 4-2-1 record. In 1982, the Hurst posted a 4-5 record, his only losing season as a head coach. After finishing 5-3-1 in 1983, the program was ready to ascend the ladder of Division III excellence. Mercyhurst finished 8-1 in '84, including a win over another Division III powerhouse, Widener. The lone loss was a 12-10 decision at Buffalo State. The 1985 squad finished at 8-2, climbing as high as 15th in the NCAA Division III rankings. The 6-4 record compiled last year is quite deceiving, since the losses came to Division I-AA Villanova; Dayton, ranked number one in the country at the time; Alfred, winner of the ECAC North Championship; and Salisbury State, losers in the Division III Championship Game. All told, this foursome had an impressive 40-5 record. Things don't promise to get any easier in 1987, as all four again appear on the schedule.

"My goal is to win a national championship for the school and to establish a program that will be competitive from the start," stated the hard-working coach when he first took the Mercyhurst reins. DeMeo quickly served notice that he wasn't kidding, opening the 1982 season with a 21-20 victory at Gettysburg, one of the favorites to win the national championship that season. His search for respectability has included facing teams the likes of Gettysburg, Dayton, Edinboro, Widener, Villanova and Salisbury State. Division I-AA opponents Lafayette and Fordham loom on future schedules.

While building the Mercyhurst football program, DeMeo has also become one of the leading tacticians of the Wishbone offense in the country. Long known as purely a running attack, DeMeo has incorporated concepts of the Run-and-Shoot and Delaware Wing T offenses to revolutionize the Wishbone attack. In 1986, Mercyhurst averaged 212.6 yards per game rushing and 180.4 yards passing. As the inventor of the Multi-Bone offense, DeMeo has written a coaching book, "Explosive Football with the Multi-Bone Attack", published in 1980 by the Parking Publishing Co., and served as a consultant to the University of Virginia and James Madison University in installing concepts of the Multi-Bone. Additionally, DeMeo's summer coaching clinic has drawn high school coaches from as far away as Portland and New Orleans. He is also a frequent contributor to such magazines as "Scholastic Coach" and "Athletic Journal".

DeMeo attended Iona College, graduating in 1971 with a Bachelor's Degree in History. He played four seasons with the Gaels as a running back. After working as a graduate assistant at Iona for one year, DeMeo returned to Pelham High School in New York, where he starred as a prepster. Pelham posted its first winning season in five years with DeMeo as the offensive coordinator.

After a one-year stint at Pelham, DeMeo was again on the move, this time to Pace University as an assistant coach for two years. He took over the head coaching job at Iona in 1975, becoming the youngest coach in the country at 25 years of age. In four seasons at Iona, DeMeo led the Gaels to a 22-10-2 mark. His 1977 squad posted a perfect 7-0 record to win the Met 7 Conference Championship, with twenty performers earning all-league honors. His previous year's team compiled a 5-2-1 record to tie for the Met 7 crown. DeMeo earned Coach of the Year accolades in the Met 7 Conference in both 1976 and 1977.

Before accepting the Mercyhurst challenge, DeMeo served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania for two years. He directed the Quaker defensive backs his first season before becoming the offensive coordinator at the Ivy League school.

The Hurst coach and his wife, the former Joanne Dignum of Albany, New York, have three daughters—Sara, 10, Annie, 7, and Mary Kate, 5.

A former all-league running back at Erie Tech Memorial, Brasington continued his career at Slippery Rock until injuries forced him into the coaching ranks. After graduating from Slippery Rock in 1974, he enjoyed successful coaching stints at Erie McDowell, Erie Tech Memorial and Erie Academy as an assistant coach.

Brasington completed work on his Master's Degree in Higher Education from Edinboro University in 1986. In addition to his coaching duties, he will serve as Mercyhurst's Academic Counselor to Athletes, overseeing the progress of close to 300 varsity athletes.

The 29-year-old earned College Division III All-American honors as a senior. He earned All-Met 7 Conference accolades three times, and was a member of the 1977 squad which went undefeated and captured the Met 7 crown. After coaching the defensive ends the previous two seasons, Curtis returns to instructing the linebackers, an area he handled his first two years as an aide. Curtis also served as the junior varsity head coach last year. In addition to coaching the linebackers, Curtis and assistant Harry Morrison will handle the special teams.

After two seasons at Middle Tennessee State, Curtis, a former All-Metro performer at Erie Cathedral Prep, transferred to Mercyhurst. A vicious hitter, he was a two-year starter for the Lakers, recording a total of 149 tackles.

Curtis is a 27-year-old bachelor.

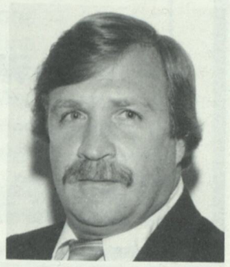
Halmi is a former standout at Erie McDowell High School, and was a participant in the 1976 Save-An-Eye All-Star game. He played football as a freshman and sophomore at Westminster College before deciding to concentrate on academics. The Titans captured NAIA National Championships both years he played. Halmi was graduated from Westminster in 1980 with a double major in History and Religion. He is also certified to teach Social Studies.

Presently, Halmi is completing work on a Master's Degree in Public Administration at Edinboro University. The 29-year-old bachelor earlier completed a Master's Degree in Secondary Guidance and Counseling.

Harry Morrison, Defensive Line and Special Teams Coach



Like Halmi, Harry Morrison begins his fourth year at Mercyhurst. For the third straight year he will focus on the defensive interior linemen after working with the defensive ends his first year. He also is beginning his second year coaching the special teams, working with assistant Dave Curtis.

Morrison, the Hurst's elder statesman at 41, brings nineteen years of coaching experience to Mercyhurst. He served four years as an assistant at Western Reserve High School in Warren, Ohio. His next stop was a three-year stay at Erie McDowell High School as an assistant before joining the college ranks as an aide at Edinboro University for three years.

For five years Morrison served as the defensive coordinator at Erie Academy High School. He took over the head coaching reins for the final seven games in 1983.

A native of Greenville, Pa., Morrison graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1969 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. Morrison and his wife, Kathy, have four children — Donald, 20, Wendy, 18, Raymond, 17, and Holly, 16.

TODAY'S GAME

The Final Countdown

By Bob Shreve
Sports Information Director

Welcome to the final game of the 1987 season. Mercyhurst has lived up to its advanced billing, showcasing a powerful offensive attack and a defense which puts you on the edge of the seat, but ultimately wins games. The Lakers enter with a 6-3 record following last week's win at Canisius. Canisius was looking to solidify an ECAC Playoff bid while bidding farewell to War Memorial Stadium, but the Blue & Green spoiled the Rockpile's celebration with a 21-17 win.

Today's opponent is Salisbury State. Credit Laker coach Tony DeMeo for not bringing in a patsy to send everyone home happy for the winter months. The Sea Gulls finished 13-1 last year, losing to Augustana, 30-3, in the NCAA Division III Championship Game. First-year coach Dr. Joseph Dailey has led Salisbury State to a 6-2 record, with the losses coming to a pair of strong outfits, Ferrum and Montclair State.

Mercyhurst hopes to send out twelve seniors playing their final contest in style. He will again rely on an offensive attack spearheaded by Brian Rostek. The Rooster, one of the departing seniors, has been nothing short of sensational throughout the year. He has broken virtually every passing and total offense he set a year ago. The Lakers signal caller has completed 102 of 203 passes for 1,616 yards with 8 TDs and 12 interceptions. He is also the second-leading rusher with 415 yards on 118 carries and 10 TDs, and needs just 67 yards on the ground to become the third Laker to reach 1,000 yards rushing in his career.

Rostek has a host of talented receivers, led by dangerous Scott Gorring. Another of the sensational seniors, Gorring will leave us with plenty of memories — the 69-yard punt return for a touchdown at Dayton as a sophomore, the 85-yard kickoff return for a score against Buffalo State, and the 79-yard scoring aerial at Villanova. He has caught a season-record 42 receptions for 785 yards and 5 TDs. Senior Greg Mitchell is a fine receiver in his own right, with 20 receptions for 203 yards and one score.

With senior Darryl Lewis out for the season with an injury and junior Lou Konyha suspended, the Hurst went with the "Smurf Backfield" at Canisius. Halfback Craig Galovich, a starter all year, is 5′8″, 166 lbs., while sophomores Jeff Andrejchak and Ron Bryant are 5′9″, 171 lbs. and 5′8″, 193 lbs., respectively. Galovich has run for 175 yards on 37 carries, catching 15 passes for 280 yards. Bryant has carried the pigskin 26 times for 123 yards. Like Bryant, Andrejchak made his first start a week ago, gaining 17 yards on 3 rushes and catching 4 passes for 51 yards.

As is always the case, linemen get little recognition. Offensive line coach Ken Treschitta has quietly molded a group that was a question mark when the season began into a real strength. John Widecan is the lone senior of the group at guard, with junior Brian Dermigny at the other guard spot, juniors Charlie Wertz and John DeJoy at center and tackle, respectively, and oncoming freshman John Koulianos at right tackle.

Give defensive coordinator Ken Brasington plenty of credit for taking an undersized and young defense and turning it into an effective group. Senior linebacker Greg Latimer leads the team with 108 tackles, and is just 18 tackles shy of breaking Don Gibbon's season record of 125. Latimer is not one of the graduating seniors, with another year of eligibility remaining. Defensive back Paul Smith, a junior, has 76 tackles, 4½ sacks and 3 interceptions, while senior linebacker Mike Jenkins has 71 stops. Senior cornerback Chris Ellis leads in interceptions, tying the single season record with five.

Salisbury State features a very experienced offensive group with eight seniors and three juniors in the starting lineup. Dailey, as his doctorate suggests, knows better than to fool with a good thing. He has kept the Wing-T offense that former coach Mike McGlinchey installed to perfection. If you've never seen the Wing-T offense, keep your eyes on the ball! In junior Kevin White, the Sea Gulls have an excellent triggerman. White is an adept ballhandler, and has also thrown for 947 yards, completing 67 of 136 passes with 6 TDs and 10 interceptions.

The Sea Gulls are averaging 209 yards rushing, with senior Mike Coppa the catalyst. Coppa has not enjoyed the type of season he had in '86, but his numbers are still impressive. After gaining 1,141 yards in the regular season last year, he has carried 128 times for 689 yards and 4 TDs. He is also the leading receiver with 17 for 187 yards and 2 TDs. Fullback Frank Oliver has rushed for 343 yards on 99 carries, while halfback Jerry Short has 274 yards on just 39 totes, a 7.0 average. This group runs behind an offensive line which averages 243 pounds.

The Sea Gulls are no slouches on defense, either, allowing just 105 yards rushing and 134 yards passing. Experience is again a plus defensively, with seven senior starters. Senior Chris Snyder is an All-American candidate at linebacker. Other defensive standouts are defensive end Mike Burton and linebacker Keith Rawlings, both seniors.

"This game will be a real challenge for our kids," comments DeMeo, "Mike Coppa is one of the best backs in the country, and overall they have a good offense. Their defense is very strong, and senior dominated.

"This is a very special game," admits DeMeo. "I really care about these kids. It will be very special for our twelve seniors. It's also a special game for our program. Salisbury State is a national power."

Mercyhurst first played Salisbury State in the final game of the 1986 season, with the Sea Gulls securing a Division III playoff berth with a 21-14 win. The Lakers could not stop Coppa, the SSC star gaining 123 yards on 22 carries, but Salisbury State never found a way to lasso the Rooster. Rostek ran for 138 yards and passed for 195.

Care for a deciding factor. Well how about the fact that Salisbury State has outscored their opponents 223 to 54 in the first three quarters, and have been outscored 41 to 37 in the fourth. The Lakers — they've outscored their opponents 63-36 in the final stanza. One more time, with gusto — FOURTH QUARTER'S OURS!!

Seniors on Stage

By Bob Shreve
Sports Information Director

Each year the time comes when we must say goodbye to the seniors playing in their final contest. Each year this task becomes more and more difficult, for their accomplishments and claims to fame are ever more impressive. Like the seniors of the past, this delightful dozen has served Mercyhurst proud. Today we ask that you remember their faces, for in years to come, there is no question that their accomplishments will not be forgotten. As they play their final home game this afternoon, we can say farewell knowing that this same success they have enjoyed on the gridiron will continue as they pursue their destinies.
